

Super 8 Tennis

The Super 8 tennis tournament is played in the First term. The two schools are divided into groups of four before semi-finals and finals. The format is similar to the Davis Cup with four singles and two doubles matches played in every exchange. Nationally Tauranga have been the most successful Super 8 School, having placed in the Top five nationally several times. They have also produced Austin Childs who played professionally for a number of years and made the quarter finals of the Australian Junior Open and enjoyed a successful college career in the USA. Tennis has been especially well served by Anne Millward Brown (Napier BHS), Wayne Merritt (Tauranga BC) and Andre Hope (New Plymouth BHS).
